Local Items.

MR. F. L. GOODSPEED has just completed a house, about one-half mile from Missisquoi Springs, for the accommodation of persons who desire to be near the springs. The house is 60 by 30 feet, is furnished throughout in good style and will comfortably accommodate thirty persons. Mr. Goodspeed will run a team from the Springs at different hours of the day, so that there will be no necessity for those in want of the water to walk even the short distance it is from his house to the "healing fountain."

NEW FIRM.—Messrs. C. V. and Chas. A. Lewis have purchased Messrs. Scofield & Vincent's stock of groceries, and will continue the business in all its branches at the old stand on Lake Street. The first named member of the new firm will be remembered as a former partner of Mr. Joseph S. Weeks, in the Dry Goods Business, and the latter as an obliging and gentlemanly clerk in the store of S. H. Lewis & Co. The Messrs. Lewis are both young men of good business education and will doubtless merit and receive their share of the patronage of the public.

PERMISSION TO DANCE.—A capital story is just now afloat concerning the Roman Catholic Bishop of Montreal. He has prohibited dancing among his church members. A couple of officers, so the story goes, who wished permission to dance polkas at a military ball of their regiment, obtained permission to dance the polka together, to show the Bishop how it was done. After the exhibition the Bishop gave his permission in these words: "You can dance the polka as long as you wish—with each other."

CORRECTION.—Ten degrees of heat, more or less, when it is as hot as blazes, are, as Mr. Toots would say, of "no consequence?" but accuracy of statement may be. We therefore, in accordance with instructions from Mr. A. H. Huntington "depose and say" that 70° and not 80° was the record of the thermometer on the north side of his house, in the shade, each morning last week. The hottest portion of the days showed from 80° to 90°, with an average maximum heat of a little over 80°. People mopped their noble brows last week, and declared it was hot.

RECOVERING.—Conductor Webster, whom the Montpelier Journal reported fatally injured last Wednesday, we are happy to learn is recovering, and was able to be moved from Bilton to Burlington to-day. He is cousin instead of brother to the conductor of the same name lately killed by the collision of freight and passenger trains.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.—The Bar of Windsor County on Wednesday evening presented to the Court resolutions of respect for the memory of the late Hon. Norman Williams, and on the occasion eloquent and appropriate remarks were made by several gentlemen besides the court, who, in accordance with the request contained therein, ordered the resolutions upon the records.

We learn that Hon. A. O. Aldis, United States Consul at Nice, France, arrived at Brattleboro a few days since and is the guest of his brother-in-law, Hon. Daniel Kellogg. He will visit St. Albans at an early day.

ALBURGH SPRINGS.—The company that purchased the Franklin House, and the Spring not long since for $8,000, have built a large two-story house over the Spring, which cannot fail to add to the comfort of visitors. The building contains a reception room, which is to be neatly furnished, bathing rooms, bottling and packing room, &c. The new company have already commenced bottling and shipping the water, and a few days ago, we learn, they forwarded a car load to New York City for free distribution. Notwithstanding the Alburgh water has been favorably known for years, there never has until this season been any conveniences for bottling it in large quantities for shipment to various sections of the country. The new company have taken hold of the matter in earnest, and are evidently determined to establish for the water something more than a local reputation, which it justly deserves, as hundreds hereabouts will willingly testify. Rev. C. B. Cady is the company's agent at Alburgh Springs, and attends to the bottling of the water, filling orders, &c. Mr. G. W. Beardsley has curbed his spring, and the demand for the water is constantly increasing.

The Mansion House, Mr. Chauncey Smith, proprietor, has been undergoing thorough repairs, and is now ready for visitors. The indications are that there will be a large number of people from abroad at Alburgh this summer.

THE Republicans of Orange County meet in Mass Convention at Chelsea on the 23d to nominate County officers.

EDITORS TRANSCRIPT:

I notice in Saturday evening's edition of your daily that at a meeting called to organize a Grant Club in St. Albans my name was used, and that I was made one of the Executive Committee of said Club.

I would beg leave to state through your columns that I did not attend the meeting, nor did I consent to have my name used, and as I have had no connection whatever with the organizing of a Grant Club and do not intend to become a member of any such organization, I prefer that my name should not be used in connection with any such institution.

Very respectfully,
L. McD. SMITH.

MR. CHARLES H. BLINN takes this method of conveying to his friends at St. Albans, his most sincere heartfelt thanks for their many kindnesses toward him during his two years connection with the "Weldon" House, and of assuring them that should they chance to visit Montreal, their reception and greeting at the "Ottawa" shall be as cordial as have been their good wishes for his future welfare.

St. Albans, June 23, 1868.

TO-NIGHT.—The distinguished manager, Sir Christopher Columbus Spennett, Snag Dragon Diabetes Pluck, desires us to call attention to the meeting to-night, at Music Hall, of the Kinewinchawians. This we utterly refuse to do, it being our rule to pay no attention to anonymous "communications."

THE WILKINSON BURGLARY.—The Times says that "Charles H. and Dr. Hamilton Potter were brought before Justice Hollenbeck, Saturday, on charge of burglary and secreting of goods stolen from Wright's store in Williston. Henry Ballard, Esq., appeared for the prisoners, and E. R. Hard, Esq., for the State in the absence of State's Attorney Englesby. Several important witnesses not being present, the case was continued until Tuesday, July 7th, and the bail for appearance was fixed at $5000 each on the charge of burglary, and $1000 on charge of secreting stolen goods.

"There is strong suspicion that Stephen Foster, a cousin of Potter's was connected with the robbery. He was seen that day going about with one hand bandaged, and has since disappeared. None of the parties has as yet furnished bail, so they still have lodgings in the jail."

HON. PROSPER MERRILL of Felchville, the Belows Falls Times says, has bought the Blake estate in Woodstock, situated just on the outskirts of the village, including farming tools, live stock, and a lot of land in Plymouth, the whole purchase amounting to some $25,000. It is said to be one of the finest farms in that section, and on the premises is a spacious stone house on a delightful site.

The lower limbs of Rev. Edward Bourne, of Northfield, who was recently taken ill in the pulpit, are now completely paralyzed.

GEN. T. W. SHERMAN, Commander of the Department of the East, made a thorough examination and inspection of the Military Post at Plattsburgh on Tuesday of last week. The General expressed himself gratified with the discipline and fine appearance of the men.

The fourth annual re-union of the second Vermont Regiment takes place at Burlington this evening. Col. Chas. H. Joyce, of Rutland, delivers the annual address.

MARTIN J. BIXBY has been appointed Post-master at Perkinsville.

ESSEX COUNTY.—The Republicans of Essex County met at Guildhall on the 11th inst., and nominated the following ticket: Senator, George N. Dale, of Island Pond; Assistant Judges, Elias Lyman, Lemington; Levi Howe, West Concord; Judge of Probate—W. H. Harshorn, Guildhall; Sheriff, J. A. Mansur, Island Pond; State's Attorney, O. F. Harvey, West Concord; High Bailiff, D. G. May, West Concord.

Resolutions were adopted, endorsing the Chicago platform, and the nomination of Grant and Colfax.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—Our thanks are especially due to Col. P. B. Johnson Secretary of the New York State Agricultural Society for sundry valuable documents.

RUTLAND & WOODSTOCK RAILROAD.—The survey of this road was completed on Thursday of last week, when the surveying party reached the village of Woodstock. The Standard says:

We are informed that the survey crosses the river about twenty times in the town of Bridgewater. This may be a necessity, and we would not assume to question the correctness and wisdom of the survey, in chief, Mr. Randall, but we venture the prediction that a locating survey will not attempt to bridge the whole stream lengthwise, and that an equally feasible and direct route can be found without resorting to that expensive.

VAN AMBURGH'S Menagerie was at Belows Falls Saturday.

FENIAN STATE CONVENTION.—A State Convention of the Fenian Brotherhood was held in Burlington on Saturday, which the Times characterizes as "large and enthusiastic." Gen. O'Neill, the President of the Brotherhood in the United States, and Major Rafferty, Captain Driscoll, Military Organizer, and other prominent Fenians were present and made speeches. The convention proper was held with closed doors, and the nature of the deliberations is not definitely known. In the evening meeting Maj. Rafferty referred to the overthrow of the Irish Church establishment as a Fenian victory. He said that "he believed in secrecy in the Fenian movement to strike England first and afterwards talk about it. None outside of the brotherhood know Gen. O'Neill's plans. Wherever Ireland may choose to strike she will bring England to her knees."

Gen. O'Neill was introduced, and made a speech, the substance of which we copy from the Times:

The General said that after a long season of lecturing, this was the last time he intended to speak in public. The time had now come for work. England has never been influenced by Irish eloquence unaccompanied by Irish bayonets. We are told the Fenian organization is a humbug, but England will soon learn that it is not. For the last four months the speaker had investigated the Fenian organization, and had found it nearly perfect for a reasonable promise of success. About two years ago a Fenian convention was held at Pittsburgh, and it was decided to invade Canada. Had the Fenian army been permitted to meet the English troops fairly, the Irish Republic would be firmly established to-day. Gen. Meade officially reports that the Fenian army contained 37,000 men.

England stirred up the late civil war. She little thought that she was thereby educating Irish soldiers, who, at no distant day, would fight her own armies. We are fighting England, and not the Canadians. We would not injure a Canadian hair; but we claim the right to tear down the English flag wherever we find it.

At the time of the invasion at least 100,000 men were ready to cross the border, and the speaker pictured out the inevitable result of their advance, viz: the liberation of Ireland. The Irish people never would submit to be governed by England, and they do not propose to give it up on account of a single failure. He asked what right they had to live in this free country if they did not fight for their own freedom. This struggle is to be continued until they gain their liberties or are totally exterminated.

The General is a fine appearing man and quite an enthusiastic speaker. Mr. Monahan then called for contributions of money and men, as did likewise Major Rafferty. Considerable money was paid in, and several joined the Fenian circle. The public meeting then adjourned and a private meeting of the circle followed, which continued to quite a late hour.

Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative took the First Premium over all competitors at the New Hampshire State Fair. It stands confessedly without a rival throughout the country, and is driving all other preparations from the market.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.
